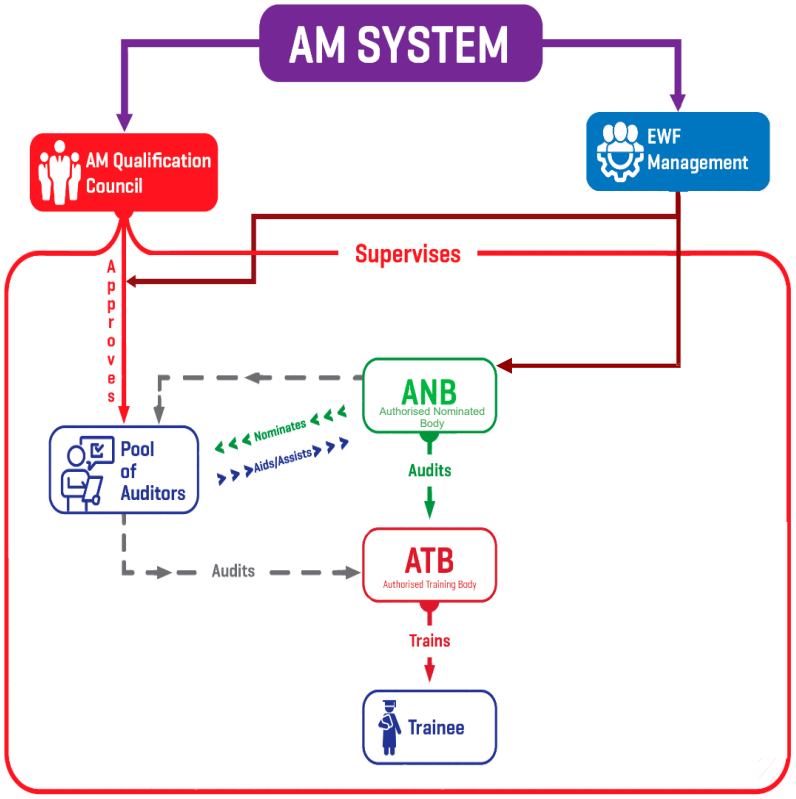
Skills needs and skills addressing for the European AM Industry

By Dr Eurico Assunção, EWF Deputy Director

ANB & ATB Overview



ATB is approved for a specific scope of activities:

- Qualification Level
- Team of Lecturers
- Course Materials
- Facilities and Equipment
- Language
- Location

Evaluate Necessities and Capabilities
Application Phase
Application Review and Approval

Evaluate Necessities and Capabilities

•Scope Assessment

Evaluate own scope

- Start communication with ANB

- Choose directly ANB based on scope assessment (AM ANBs information will be available on EWF website)

- Contact EWF (ewf-iab@ewf.be) and EWF points the right ANB

Evaluate Necessities and Capabilities

- Check Conformity with EWF AM Syllabus

Access EWF's Public Guideline (available at www.ewf.be)

Ask ANB access to EWF's Private Guideline

•Facilities and Equipment

Health and Safety Requirements

Tools for Practical Work

Appropriate Classrooms

Good quality visual aids

Evaluate Necessities and Capabilities

- Teaching Staff Connection to the Industry Teaching abilities
- Competence in course subjects
- Sufficient number of teaching staff
- Close relation with the industry

Evaluate Necessities and Capabilities

- Documented Timetable

Programme lecture by lecture

Indicate subject

Teachers and reference to EWF AM Syllabus

Evaluate Necessities and Capabilities
Application Phase
Application Review and Approval

Application

- Ask ANB for application forms and fill them

EWF-AM-F-3

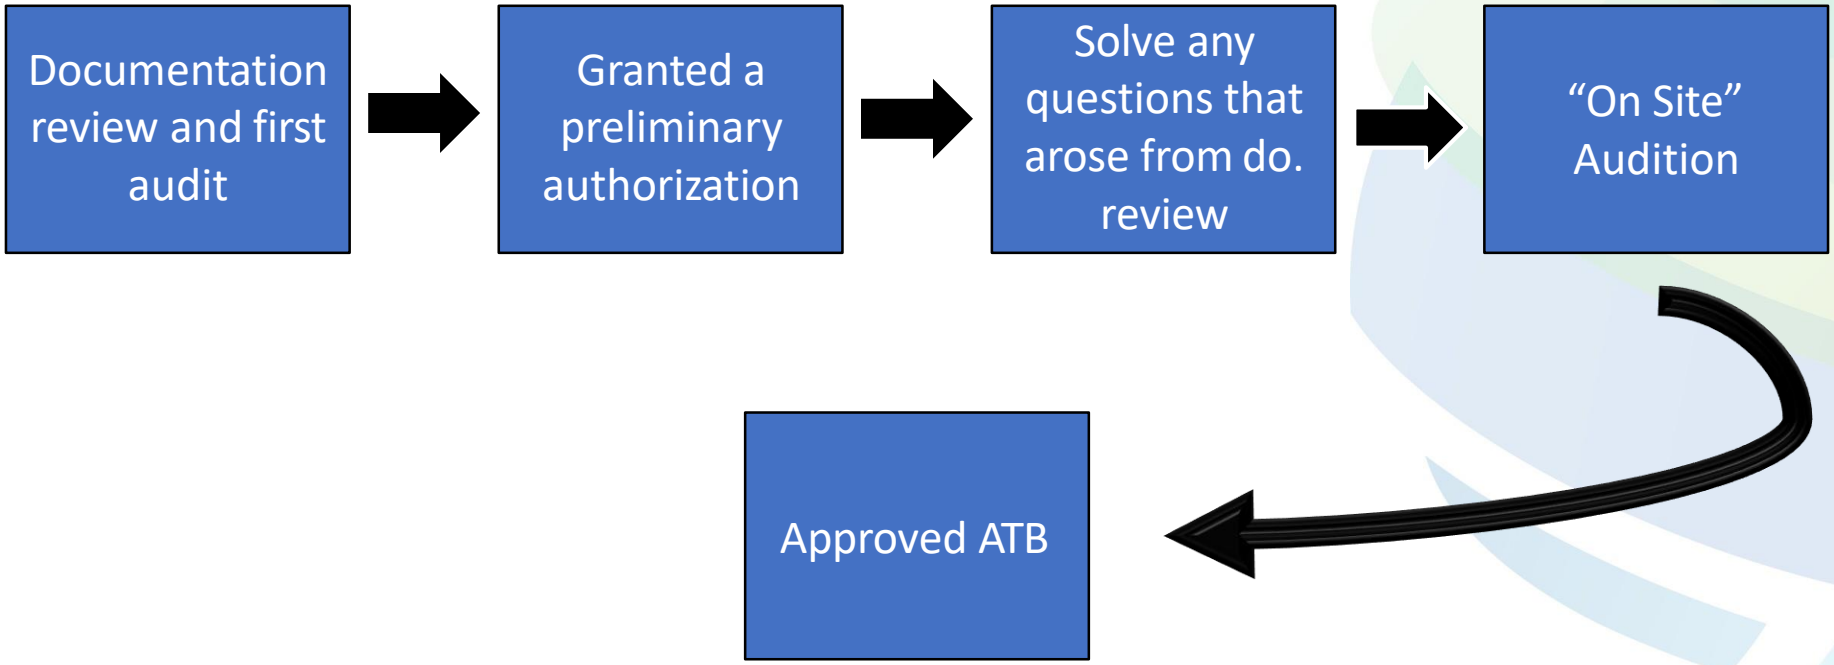
Comply with ANB requirements to become an Authorized Training Body

EWF-AM-F-4

To award an EWF AM Qualification or Competence Unit

Evaluate Necessities and Capabilities
Application Phase
Application Review and Approval

Application Review and Approval Phase



Thank You

Eurico Assunção
EGAssuncao@ewf.be

www.ewf.be